Zitronenhügel ("lemon hill") in Plakias & Pavlos`Place in Triopetra ("triple rock") are located off the beaten path in the south of the island of Crete. These locations are considered to have the best insider's tip because in the 1960's "flower children" from around the world chose Crete for their place of meeting. To further promote a peaceful environment there are no bars or loud nightlife in the immediate vicinity. Here I have found for many years the perfect location for learning and deepening our practices of Ashtanga Yoga.
